

Here in New England, we're more likely to tackle one room at a time than plunge into a whole-house makeover. It's the Yankee way, and incidentally, very 2012. That's why we organized our research around every room on your list. From millworkers to muslin, decorative painters to doorknobs, Boston's best can be found right here.

COLOR CONSULTANTS ColorTheory

➔ Sometimes all your room needs is a hue adjustment to make it new again. That's where Brad Dufton and Kendra Amin of ColorTheory come in. Trained in interior design, Dufton will use his uncanny ability to envision how those tiny paint swatches will translate to your walls to gently steer you to the right shade. Best of all, once you've made your choices, he and his team will sand, prime, and paint the place in a jiffy.
